

1 Samuel

Overview day

Without peeking, write down one or two things you might already know (or think you know) about the following people in the book of Samuel:

Eli _____

Hannah- _____

Samuel _____

Read Psalm 47:1-9. According to these verses, what is God the King over?

What should our response be to our King? (Psalm 47:2, 6)

Who sits on the throne? (Psalm 47:8) What kind of a throne is it?

Read Daniel 2:20-23. Who sets human kings on their thrones? (Daniel 2:21)

What else does Daniel mention that God changes in verse 21?

It is as simple for God to change the seasons as it is for Him to change human kings on human thrones. Daniel's response is not one of fear to this knowledge. What is Daniel's response to this? (verse 23)

Read 1 Timothy 1:15-17. According to these verses, what else is God the King of? According to verses 15-16, what has God done on our behalf?

The God we serve is the ultimate King, and His concern is for us, His children. Knowing the grace and mercy He has shown to us, coupled with the awesome power that He contains, what is your reaction to this King? If your reaction to Him is fear or worry, spend some time in prayer today and consider why. If you belong to the King of the universe, the knowledge that He cares for you should bring fill you with joy and comfort as you face each day.
